

Marvin Kirchhoefer confirmed as R-Motorsports 6th Driver in Blancpain GT Endurance Series

- German GT Racer confirmed as the final addition to the R-Motorsport Line-up
- Driver line-up for R-Motorsports two Aston Martin Vantage GT3 finalized

The German, former GP2 podium sitter and GP3 Series front runner joins the team after enduring his own maiden season of GT racing which saw him take victory in the Pro-Am class of the 24 hours of Spa Francorchamps.

He took three further podiums in 2017 during his debut season, putting him in a prime position to challenge in his new R-Motorsport machinery for this season.

R-Motorsport is the motorsport brand of swiss based AF Racing AG. AF Racing is one of the three official partners of the Aston Martin Valkyrie hypercar project.

The team will partner established outfit Arden International. Founded by former racer and Red Bull Racing F1's Christian Horner and his father Garry, Arden have achieved major success across multiple single-seater series including FIA Formula 2 and it will be run in conjunction with two-time Le Mans 24 Hours LMP2 winner Jota Sport.

Now the 6th driver is finalised for R Motorsport, we are delighted to announce that the driver line ups will be Nicki Thiim, Jake Dennis and Matthieu Vaxiviere in one car, and Maxime Martin, Alex Brundle and Marvin Kirchhoefer in the sister car.

Marvin Kirchhofer says:

“I’m really pleased to be a part of this project and to complete R-Motorsports strong driver line up! My motivation is very high to compete strong in such a high level and professional racing series. Everyone in the team is putting a lot of effort to perform well, straight from the 1st moment to show the potential we have in the car and the team!”

R-Motorsport team principal Florian Kamelger said:

“Great to have Marvin in the team. He is the perfect fit to a strong competitive team of drivers. We’re well prepared to take the challenge. The entire team did a great job during the winter months, now it counts to put the focus on the first race.”

With the R-Motorsport team all confirmed, preparations will now continue right up to the first round of the season, which take place at the Autodromo Nazionale Monza on the 21-22 April 2018.
